PASTOR'S WIFE SAYS HUSBAND IS INNOCENT

Parents of Girl Jointly Accused With Schanck Say "Impossible."

ALIBIS ARE PROMISED.

Youths Reassert They Saw Miss Foreman Sitting in Preacher's Lap.

WORLD, N. J., Oct. 2.—The e Mrs. Grundy has this little own by the cars. Wherever ree townsfolk are gathered to the name of goesip one can agerly attentive visages that the subject under discussion is the new Metho Protestant minister, the Rev. Halok F. Schanck, and the scandalous ags" with which his name has bee dewalk patter of the natives revealed o-day such observations as these: "And seen him with John Foreman's youngest gal, Sarah, settin' on his lapand him a married man with a wife

I figure I can judge human nature pretty keen and I'd a whole sight sooner take that young pastor's word for ban believe all the Tom Rankins, Austia Newberrys and Harry Mounts put together and them swearing on a stack of Bibles a mile high."

"Well, you can't tell me them boys in't seen what they say they seen. they ain't a'goin' to make up no such . story just for the glory that's in it."

From the number of such converse tions overheard in all parts of this little community it would seem a safe wage that public sentiment's about evenly di-vided "fer and agin" the young preacher. For leadership of the two factions one may turn to the trustees and parishioners of the First Methodis Protestant Church to find them standfour of the town's most reputable young men and their friends to get the full

ACCUSERS STICK TO THEIR ORIGINAL STORY. This quartette, Thomas Rankin, Aus

in Newberry, Harry Mount and Joel racker, has not backed down an inch from the original statements of the "We can't be mistaken," said Newterry, a likely young fellow, a day stu-cent at a commercial college in Trenton. We all know Senanck by sight, though we don't go to his church. We were on our way to Asbury Park last Friday evening to go to a snow when we spotted Schanck on the train. One of the boys mentioned having seen the minister walking around town

Sarah Foreman had suggested that schanck might bear watching.

'In Asbury Park we were walking be hind Schanck when we saw him stop at Vilein's store and join Saran Fore nan. Then we decided to follow them

Rev. Mr. Schanck, but on his assurances of complete innocence expressed to the Metropolitan Museum and study their entire belief in him and refused to the Egyptian figurines, the old Persian take any immediate action.

"We believe our minister." said E. S. every opportunity to clear himself in the even of the church and the general public. Those young men must be mis-

This is the attitude of practically every member of Mr. Schanck's church. and, what is perhaps even more to the point, of his wife. Mrs. Schanck has prepared an affidavit to the effect that her husband was home all Friday evening. The other evenings of last week are all accounted for in other ways.

What makes the blow fall with pecultar force is the fact that the young will see a Persian gown outlining and to the annual conference of the Eastern tailor-made with a loosely wound vivid Tuesday. It was at this confer- you and I wear to-day and with a little that he expected the recent unani- tight Tommy Atkins hat worn on one ous call given him by his new parish-sers to be ratified.

If you only knew the years of work

ALL THE NEWEST STYLES ARE put in preparing myself for the min-stry while earning a living in the shoe actory at Vineland, you would underin the ministry only about a year.

Gowns That Are in Style To-Day Were in Vogue 5,000 Years Ago, As a Study of Egyptian Figures in the Metropolitan Museum Will Show

PERSIAN -

LACQUERED

FROM /

DOOR

DESIGN

SHOWING

ORGIN

MODERIJ

1581- 1628

Proof That the Minaret Skirt Was Worn by a Matron of Western Asia Several Centuries B. C .- Old Chinese Picture of a Gown With the Train in Front—Ancient Tartar Belles Wore the Coming Trouser or Bloomer Skirt-The Lampshade Costume Was in Style Before Lampshades Were In-

By Nixola Greeley-Smith.

The minaret gown-greatest novelty of this revolutionary season of 1913-14- is older than the slender towers from which it takes its name. Otherwise known as the lampshade skirt, it was born long before lamps were invented-worn in Turkey. worn in Western Asia, worn in Egypt where young women chattered about it and wondered just as you are wondering whether their's would be the first and whether it would create a big senastion at the country club or its social equivalent in the land of Poiret, great Parisian dressmaker, introduced the minaret gown to Paris and New York, but Cleopatra's dressmaker might have shown it on his fashion plates.

Stranger even than the minaret is the peg-top skirt which shows the train of the dress in front passing between the feet so that it trails behind. In this extraordinary conceit introduced by the French firm of

But since no one of the povelties of but got off at Sea Girt and out across Martial & Armand the skirt has two panniers, one under the other; through the woods to where an old third skirt dropping straight like an apron, and from underneath this a Pennsylvania passenger car stands be- slender train which is drawn between the feet and held there even while side the track. fe followed and after the wearer walks. Needless to say, she cannot walk; she merely waddles. they had gone the car we waited a fine wearer walks. Needless to say, she cannot ware, are ment in after But it is all very Turkish or Persian or Oriental, anyhow. And what more them. We struck matches and saw the does any fashionable woman seek this year?

"Schanck came to see me and told me to my face I must have mistaken some front train must be new. No one was other man for him, but I told him I didn't think so, and that I was going to that. But if you entertain such an idea —if you are unwilling to accept the fact —if you are unwilling to accept the fact —that there is nothing new under the the antiquity of the minaret skirt, the teresting fashion for the coming winter The board of trustees called on the that there is nothing new under the prints, the color plates of gowns which adorned the belles of China and India Van Leer, one of the trustees, to-day, and Tartary thousands of years ago.
"We have told him we would give him You will find all of them there—our startling novelties of 1913.

Among others there is a picture of a costume which adorned a fashionable matron of Western which had not only a minaret skirt but a minaret corsage to match a sort of triple cape which covered her shoulders, but left her waist bare. You will see too an old Chinese ple ure with the train in front and passing between the feet. Also an Egyptian cos-FEARS SCANDAL MAY COST HIM tume with an accordion pleated front top. dinister was eagerly looking forward clinging to the figure like a modern

THE OLDEST.

The Ageless East knew the shadow Paris is nex-and Paris charges such and what a crushing blow this charge minaret also, the transparent wired high prices for all of them—it is a con-is to me," said Schanck to-day. "I have overskirt of chiffon with an underskirt solution to realize that you can be your drawn about the feet in a Turkish own Poiret by looking over the fashions i so given this chance last April to fire a vacancy here for the rest of the scandal is that of John Foreman, a term. It was understood that if I made good the church here would ask to have me retained as their regular pastor. Only last week they gave me a unanimous call and instructed their delegate mous call and instructed their delegate mother is seriously ill from the shock.

But the Foremans are seemingly as by mashers on a Third avenue "L" mous call and instructed their delegate to the conference to bring me back or nobody.

"My church still wants me, but I know I shall have to face this thing at the conference. I am getting all my affidavits together to present in my defense."

Asbury Park at 10 o'clock Friday night fared, was about to die. Then he raidavits together to present in my defense."

Another home that was hard hit by make the trip.

mother is seriously ill from the shock. But the Foremans are seemingly as positive of the girl's innocence as the pastor is of his. They have affidavits stated at Believue to-lay. Yesterday he and reached her home at 10.46, just enough lapse of time to permit her to make the trip.

PAGE, CONVICTED OF LIBEL, BREAKS

MADE OF

Country Since May 30, Wife Tells Court.

Henry W. A. Page, the vealthy lines them. We struck matches and saw the girl sitting on his lap. We went away without speaking to them. Afterward we decided the church trustees ought to Sands of yourself whatever clety woman by Poiret himself. An interest of the control of the cont > preme Court when Justice Billy at the The pear silhouette has been record- request of Mrs. Jeannie France Page, mended to women this week as a nov- who got a separation from her husband. elty in cutime. From the knee to the appointed a receiver to take charge of feet they must appear so tightly swathed as to suggest a single stem. Then come ruffles, draperies, puffs and in this city and turn over to the wife bunches; then a little skeleon waist of the income for her support. In April, Hospital Doctors in Bulletin Say net lined with fresh colored chiff'n and 1907, Mrs. Page won her separation, also adorned with just heads or brilliants, alimony at the rate of $4.00; a year, payenough to keep the wearey out of juli.

>
> The characteristics of the pear uliTite August and September instal to > houette are a big waist and obvious have not been paid yet, and in her hips. Altogether the outline suggests a petition Mrs. Page says that her hus-Turkish dancing sirl, even to the little band has left this country, never to zollern, wife of former King Manuel bolero which sometimes mitigates the return. He was paroled, she sets forth of Portugal, is improving so rapidly extreme undress of the net corsase. The in the petition, but the records in the that she and her husband will soon be resemblance of this cutline to a pear is case show that a bonch warrant issued able to undertake the journey to Signor startling unless you think of the for Page shortly after his conviction markings and London planned before pear as standing upright on its stem has not been served.

DESTITUTE. like the cowcatcher of an engine. You PROOF THAT THE PEAR OUT- According to the potent Mrs. Page

the pear outline is not such a novelty, standing in her husband's name is reports of an imponding separation of whenever a lover in the "Arabian turned over to her she will be now; the newly married purple. The half Nights" waxes particularly fervid pelled to work out to support ner chil- letin says about the charms of his beloved he dren.

GARTERPROOF

No run can pass this Gold Stripe

GOTHAM GOLD STRIPE

Silk Hosiery

$1.00 $1.50 $2.00

Guaranteed Garter-Proof-the Black, white, colors, or dyed to sample in 24 hours, quicker if necessary GOTHAM HOSIERY SHOP 27 West 34th Street New York

time she has heard nothing from him and has no idea where he is. After she ascertained that he never intended returning home, in fear that he would be imprisoned, she found Frances E. Culloy, who was employed by Page as a hookkeeper, and learned that her husband had considerable money in the hank and a piece of valuable property in Montclair, N. J. Page's offices, which are still open, are at No. 256 Broadway. The offernse of which Page was considerable more for the property in General Constant in three years and it was figured that in three years and it The offense of which Page was con-victed last was the writing of a scur-husband some time ago, in which she iniquity" and a "contemptible crook," tion merely produced the fact that fire other Congressmen, and attorneys who had opposed him.

A DRUNKARD. Page came to the United States twenty-one years ago from England and the myletion began in 1997, when Mrs. Page ceedings he charged her with being a drunkard. Once he had he committed to a sanitarium, but she was released on a writ of habeas corpus and an

EX-KING MANUEL'S BRIDE RECOVERING HER HEALTH

She Will Soon Accompany Her Husband to England.

MUNICH, Oct. 3.—The health of maringen and London planned before with its greatest circumference at the SAYS SHE AND CHILDREN ARE her illness, according to the bulletin issued by the physicians in attendance

The mention of Manuel is regarded And, by the way, just to show that "The Queen has been without fever about the charms of his beloved he likens her to an apple bobbing upon a bandle departure from these unkind meased and her general condition is waist.

Shores as Max 35, this year. Since that excellent.

AGAIN IN DR. TOUSEY'S ONCE WARRING HOME Investigation of Newspaper Error Shows Couple Are Reconciled.

rilous letter to Chairman Henry D. objected to her husband because he was Ciayton of the House Judiciary Com- "too old-fashioned," this second suit

Federal and State officers, judges and It appears the order signed by Just, --

"Another suit?" exclaimed Mr. Knox at his office to-day. "Well, I should say not. Do and Mrs. Tousey are fully recomiled and living happily together in heir old home. That's enough, isn't

In the suit brought and lost by Mrs usey it was brought out that Mrs. ousey's objections to her husband were founded on these allegations: He wanted more than one child; he had old-fashsed bleas; he did not give her his unfivided attention; he did not buy he called her extravagance.

During the trial it developed that th and it was figured that in three years

DOVE OF PEACE COOS

By being sponsor at a baptism, best meral, Street Superintendent William "too old-fashioned," this second suit H. swain ran the gamat of life on Wed-Eccentric Merchant Out of called the representative a "loper of that this was not to be. Investigated Summittee in Washington, in which he should prove interesting needay to St. Teresa's Catholic Church Church (Summitt, N. J. First George A. Martin nesday to St. Teresa's Catholic Church, was bantized, next he and Miss Mary cally were married. Then Swa ONCE ACCUSED WIFE OF BEING and not appointment of a referee. About in line as at honorary pullbearer.

The Famous Chocolate Laxative

Relieves Constipation Helps Digestion Keeps the Blood Pure

Ex-Lax is a delicious chocolate laxative recommended by physicians as a mild yet positive remedy for constipation in all its forms. Ex-Lax has made thousands happy.

A 10c box will prove its value at all druggists.

Open Air to Everywhere"

Have you seen the upper part of See them by 'bus before you

Fifth Avenue Coach Company

Seeing New York for Ten Cents TONESTLY, now, how much of New York the City you live in have > Fifth Avenue - the Metropolitan Museum- or Riverside Drive? Quite likely you have, but they all look mighty nice in the early morning.

start your day's work.

FIRST EUGENIC BABY BORN IN ENGLAND, IS HUMORIST, AS HOPED

Pre-Natal Influence by Comedians Shows Results in Six-Months-Old Child.

LONDON, Oct. 1.-Eugenette Bolge the six-months-old daughter of Howard Boice, a Californian, who married an Eng'shwoman from Devonshire, if the first eugenic baby to be born in England, and scientists are more intransmutations of metals.

The parents attempted to exercise pre-natal influence on the baby by visiting famous comedians, reading funny books and enjoying chats with literary humorists. They claim the girl, brown-eyed, velvet-skinned and happy, already shows a strong sense of humor, and trace it to their deliberate eugenic plan. Dr. Francis Galton, founder of euthe first baby brought into the world under his teachings to be called Eu-

Carpathia Brings 1,300 Passengers. The Cunard steamer Carpathia came in to-day from Mediterranean ports and added 1,220 more allens to the crowded quarters on Ellis Island. The steamer stopped at Almeria, Spain, and took on several passengers.

ple application, and the irritating growth of hair on face, neck or arms disappears completely. In its place nothing but soft, smooth, perfectly clear skin.

the time Mrs. Tousey's suit was lost, waiter L. Bunnell of No. 25 John street, her attorney, withdrew from the case, and Aifred Knox of 198 Broadway was retained in his stead. To complete the record Mr. Knox asked for the signing of an order of substitution, and this the doesn't who is distressed by the blemist of superfluous hair?

of supertitions naire.

The superiority of El Rado can be demonstrated by a single trial. Buy a bottle and test it to-day; and beware of the "Just as Good" snare. Take nothing but El Rado. The offer of something lse is an insult to your intellige El Rado is sold in two sizes, 50c and $1.00 per bottle, at all leading drug and department stores, or direct from the Pilgrim Mfg. Co., 57 E. 88th St., N. Y.

The consumer that responds to quality is appealed to and won by this coffee. Users find themselves in the best company.

SEEMAN BROS., NEW YORK, Proprietors WHITE ROSE Ceylon Tea

CARPET J. & J. W. WILLIAMS CLEANING. 353 West 54th St.

CREDIT

Like Oracles of Old

To find the present whereabouts of Jim, Fred or Mary Ann, 10 order a small World Want ad. As fast as e'er you can.

The Sunday World is noted for "Information Wanted" ads .-They bring replies like magic from Missing children, mothers, dads,

Order One To-Day!